

Target Range

Herrick Archives Number H 997

It was reported to the Board of Trustees on November 22, 1887 that Captain Holmes of the Governor's Guard sought permission to use the "target range" at the University. No evidence has been found of any target range structure at that date.

John H. Herrick
July 3, 1979